"Real Wild West" may be seen at the circus grounds today, when the big show of the famous 101 Ranch of Bliss, or their horses with all the colors and in the colors are the colors and in the colors and in the colors are the Okla, will be on view at performances this afternoon and tonight. The organisation comes here from Newport. R. L. where it exhibited vesterday to great crowds. The tour has been a record breaking one in patronage and popularity, advance agents announce ever since departure was taken from the Oklahoma prairies.

More than seven hundred persons will invade the city with the show. They will have their meals under tents at the show grounds. The number of horses, mules and ponies is nearly as large. Local merchants have the contracts for the providing of food required, ariangements having been made weeks ago.

The forenoon street parade is a prompt and positive feature of the daily life of the show. Every person and part of it is of and from the land of cattle, corrals and coyotes. Every street, is a figure of unquestioned reof cattle, corrals and coyotes. Every person is a figure of unquestioned repute in the western world of sturdy and supple physical endeavor. Every man is an admitted champion with lariat, horse or firearms, or in other departments of ranch routine. Every girl is a sun tanned product of the range land, whose beauty and youth seem to cry out against her hazardous exploits.

Neek T. Mills

Zack T. Miller, one of the three Mil-Zack T. Miller, one of the three Miller Brothers who own and operate the great 101 Ranch, leads the line, and behind him is a living narrative of the picturesque and spectacular west of past and present. Every manner and type of western vehicle and every applance, appurtenance and paraphernalia of the ranch is displayed. There are emigrant wagons, prairie schooners, round up wagons and stage coaches every one of which has done service over the prairie trails.

Scats for both performances may be purchased in advance at the 161 Ranch ticket office, which will be located for the day in The Broadway Pharmacy.

The parade will leave Sachem Park at 9.39 o'clock this morning and move as follows: Boswell avenue to Central avenue, to North Main, to East Main, to Franklin square, to Water, to Main, to Pranklin square, to East Main, to North Main, to Central avenue, to Boswell avenue, to grounds.
